

3 |

Whole-Person Comfort

Comfort for the whole person – mind, body, spirit and family

Care That Honors Life

The Eternal Standard

Dignity, defined by four pillars of care

Clinical Confidence

Guided Presence

Whole-Person Comfort

Compliance-Led Care

Comfort Is More Than Medication

End-of-life care meets the whole person — body, heart, and spirit. That means physical comfort, emotional wellbeing, spiritual care, family guidance, and grief support, all in one continuum of care.

Holistic Integrative Modalities

Where appropriate may include:

Music therapy	Occupational Therapy
Massage	Speech Therapy
Reiki	Physical Therapy
Aromatherapy	Dietitian
Pet therapy	Mobile Podiatry
Audiology	Mobile Optometry
Holistic medicine	Mobile Dialysis
End-of-life doula	Lab Testing
Sound bath	Gerontologist

805.953.7273

805.953.8530

eternallifespice.com

info@eternallifespice.com