

The Eternal Standard

Dignity, defined by four pillars of care

Clinical Confidence

Guided Presence

Whole-Person Comfort

Compliance-Led Care

Comfort Is More Than Medication

End-of-life care meets the whole person — body, heart, and spirit. That means physical comfort, emotional wellbeing, spiritual care, family guidance, and grief support, all in one continuum of care.

Holistic Integrative Modalities

Where appropriate may include:

|                   |                      |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| Music therapy     | Occupational Therapy |
| Massage           | Speech Therapy       |
| Reiki             | Physical Therapy     |
| Aromatherapy      | Dietitian            |
| Pet therapy       | Mobile Podiatry      |
| Audiology         | Mobile Optometry     |
| Holistic medicine | Mobile Dialysis      |
| End-of-life doula | Lab Testing          |
| Sound bath        | Gerontologist        |

805.953.7273

eternallifehospice.com

805.953.8530

info@eternallifehospice.com